July 8th /61. Ritie, Friend of mine

I received your letter of the 29th with gratitude and pleasure, but not having anything very interesting to relate, I kept putting it off until the present time.

We are at present encamped 1 1/2 miles west of the Capitol near Georgetown Heights on a mound overlooking the principal part of the City. We have orders to move over to Arlington Heights tomorrow morning at 4 o'clock.

Charles Scriber letter of Sept. 26, 1861 to Ritie VanWagonen describing Stephen Scriber's reduction by Captain Albert Taylor⁶⁶

P.S. This may be the last letter I ever hear of in quite a time, but nevertheless I will merely state the principle cause of this unhappy affair. Our Capt and Stephen have not been on very friendly terms since he was sick at Clinica. Since then the Capt. has tried and done everything in his power to reduce him. The opportunity came while on company drill the Capt. told him not to take Solage a circle while wheeling. This was impossible under the circumstances, or he told him so; the Capt. said if he could not he'd get a man that would; Stephen told him he could do it as soon as he wished; whereupon he was court-martialed reduced, but is now enjoying himself better than before. It may appear improper to you, in giving a statement of our company contests, but whether so or not, I now feel content.
 Things are nearly the same as when I wrote you last. Except every thing intend to shoot unless in self defense soon the same man came out and fired still closer I began to think it was the first time I ever was made a mark of and the next shot should be mine while he was behind the bushes. Loading his gun I moved a little one side and prepared to fire. He soon made his appearance but not seeing me stood a moment watching while I took aim at him and the per-fellow did not go back.

I used to think that I could never shoot a man and although it is very cruel it must be done.
The exact number that we killed we cannot tell but it is quite a number and although there was more of our lost there was also more men one of the 22 Bgt. was shot in the back and then the rebels shot their boys through him in several places the morning his comrades brought him in they also killed one of our soldiers.

OSWEGO, N. Y.

Tuesday Evening, April 11, 1865.

The Great Victory.

Now that the whirl of the great excitement has passed, people can have time to look matters squarely in the face, and consider what is best to be done. No nation that has existed was ever given over to such a day of rejoicing as was witnessed throughout the length and breadth of this land yesterday. And the great results celebrated by these rejoicings justified all the extravagant demonstrations with which the people were chargeable yesterday.

Once only has this nation experienced a similar occasion for gratification. When the news of the surrender of Cornwallis on the 19th of October, 1781, was wafted over the land, it was met with such demonstrations of joy as the great occasion was calculated to call forth. The throes of a Nation struggling for birth, had terminated. A new nation had been born into the world. The surrender of Lee's army guaranteed that nation, brought into the world after such a night of trial—a perpetual existence. Three millions of human voices went up in gratitude and praise to Almighty God for the great deliverance. Now ten times three millions of Free men—for they are all free now, make the Union resoundant over the fact that the great fabric of human liberty, for which Washington fought, for which Jefferson struggled—and for which our Revolutionary sires poured out their blood like a deluge, is to stand for ages yet unshaken.

The people of this nation have not yet had time to fully realize the vast issues in the contest which we may now consider as happily terminated. It is the end of a long and devastating war, which has drawn heavily upon the resources of the nation, and which has slain thousands and tens of thousands of brave people. That this war is to end, is alone, cause for all the joy which has been expressed. But this is not a time of the great good which the success of the Union arms guarantees to the people of this country. The shackles from four millions of human beings have been severed at a blow. The thought makes one almost delirious with its contemplation. A race is emancipated! But this is not all. Many more millions of human beings hitherto only nominally free, are elevated in the scale of human being. The degradation placed upon labor by the system of unrequited toil is removed, and the road is open to intelligence and respectability to all the people of the South. Free Labor and Free Schools may now do their work. Of all men of this nation none have so great occasion to rejoice over the triumph of the Government, as the people of the South, and the white people most of all. The warlike themselves are no exception to the rule.

The pathway of this nation in future greatness is now unobscured. There is no contemplating the future prosperity of this republic, if our future policy shall prove us as wise in peace as we have been powerful in war. We have shown to the world, and to our enemies, especially, how terrible we may be when in a state of hostility. It is settled that our national existence will not be again threatened by traitors, or any internal forces. All that is passed. With the exhibition of power that we have made, it is not likely that any foreign nation, without the most flagrant provocation, will seek to measure strength with us. The time has now arrived "when the resources of statesmanship" should be brought into the fullest requisition to restore harmony, relieve the country from the embarrassments brought upon it by a long and exhausting war, to cultivate and encourage all the arts of peace, and to develop and foster every element of great national strength and prosperity which we as a people so abundantly possess.

From the 18th.

We are in receipt of a private note from our friend, Capt. S. J. SCHROPP, of the 10th Regiment N. Y. Volunteers. From it we are very happy to learn of the good condition and continued health and spirits of that son regnant of mind and the continued popularity of the commandant and staff. The Regiment is still at the old camping ground, Harrison's Landing, in first rate fighting order, under the discipline of its gallant Colonel and field and line officers, ready and anxious for any duty that may be assigned it in the great struggle, which we are now enabled to believe is near its termination.

We are glad to learn of one very deserved promotion which has taken place in the 18th since its organization. JEROME H. CONN. of the town of Oswego, enlisted as a private in Company K, raised mostly in Schenectady. On the completion of the organization at Elmira, he was chosen Orderly Sergeant, which place he filled with so much credit, that when a vacancy occurred in the same company he was recommended and received a commission as First Lieutenant, for which place he exhibited superior fitness and ability. We were prepared to hear that he has more than fulfilled the expectations of his superiors, and that he is counted among the best officers of the regiment. At present he is acting Regimental Quarter-Master. Lieut. Conn's many friends will be glad to hear that his worth is appreciated in his Regiment.

This entire community is interested in the welfare of the Regiment, and will bear with much satisfaction of the health of the men that compose it, and the favorable accounts received on every hand of its efficiency and discipline, and the good name it has earned, officers, staff, rank and file.

Let all friends of our men and wounded soldiers rally in these several meetings.

JOHN D. HILL, President, Buffalo.
S. HUNT, Secy, Buffalo.
Western N. Y. Christian Commission,

"Seward is right."—The Secretary of State's famous prophecy that the rebellion would end in ninety days is likely to come true at last. The secretary made only a very trifling error. He said within ninety days after the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln; but he undoubtedly meant re-inauguration; only he was too modest to shadow the coming events too plainly.

The following lines from Byron's great Manney on one of the most illustrious of British statesmen and dramatists are precisely as they were recited at Dr. Lane Thackeray, London, by Mrs. Yates in March, 1874. We wonder if the great naval captain will see the application—
"Long shall we speak his name—long to recall And turn to all of him which may remain,
— Fighting that future world but one such man,
And break the time in moulting thunders!"

Old Zack Taylor passed judgment upon Jeff. Davis twenty years ago. He called him "an unprincipled scoundrel and unprincipled adventurer."

Obituary.—From the Richmond Examiner, April 3, 1865:

"Died, suddenly, at the late residence,

HARRISON'S LANDING.—In former years, and in the school books of our day Harrison's Landing was known as Berkeley. It is the birth place of President Harrison, and was for years the residence of his father, Benjamin Harrison, a conspicuous patriot of the Revolution. The old house is still standing. It is an old-fashioned edifice, constructed of brick in the year 1726, and surrounded by a group of poplars, intermingled with other trees. It was used as a hospital upon McClellan's retreat, and was subjected to a severe shelling from the enemy's batteries across James River. The roof and front of the building show marks of rebel cannon balls. Upwards of one thousand of our soldiers are believed to have died of wounds and disease in this house after our army arrived at the Landing, and it is said to be almost impossible to dig down the usual depth of a grave anywhere within the space of several acres without finding the remains of some of our departed heroes. In looking at this celebrated house, so prominent in historical associations, we are reminded of an incident in the life of its founder, Benjamin Harrison, which is not without interest in connection with our present war, and showing the contrast between the temper of the Southern statesmen of his and that of our own day.

In the Continental Congress of 1775 it was the wish of all the Southern members that Mr. Harrison should be elected to the Presidency of the Congress; but as John Hancock of Massachusetts had been nominated, Mr. Harrison, to avoid any sectional jealousy or unkindness of feeling between the Northern and Southern delegates at so momentous a crisis, with noble self denial and generosity, relinquished his own claims and insisted on the election of Mr. Hancock, who accordingly was chosen unanimously."

THE WEEK

Lots of comrades and Fulton people will be tickled to hear from one of the heroes of Co. H, 24th N. Y. and 194th, where he was a great favorite. He was Orderly Sergeant in Co. H and was promoted to 2d Lieut., Co. I. N. G. C.

St. Cloud, Fla., Feb. 28, 1912.

Lieut. N. G. Cooper,
Oberlin, Ohio.

My dear Sir and Comrade: I was very glad to hear from you, but it will be utterly impossible to accept any additional burden. We have just returned from Zephyrhills, attending the State Encampment, G. A. R., and your letter came during my absence. I have more business than I can possibly attend to and do it well. I was nominated for Commander of the Department of Florida, G. A. R., but was compelled to turn it down; as I am president of the Veteran's Association of Saint Cloud, and commander of Mitchell Post, G. A. R., of St. Cloud, and we have nearly 200 members and an attendance of from 200 to 300 in the winter and 150 in Summer and both hold their meeting on Friday and Saturday of each week. Then I have a large Bible class, on Sunday and all of my own business to attend to beside. So you can easily imagine why. And to further state facts I am also a Pension Attorney with a fair clientage.

Yes, I was through the Bull Run, South Mountain and Antietam battles. I lost my brother, Charles Scriber, at Bull Run and was wounded myself in side by shell and in the ankle by two buck shot and at Antietam by a Minnie bullet, across my abdomen, so you see I ought to know something about the scraps. We are down here among the old Vets, who did their best to send us over the range, but they are the best part of the population.

I suppose you did not know, much about my second service, after our regiment came home. I went to work and recruited Co. K of the 194th N. Y. Infantry and went back and served to the end of the war as its Captain. The last service was under Gen.'s Butler and Grant, Department of the James Well. My dear comrade I must close. May God grant you long life and much happiness, is my sincere prayer. Regards to all the boys.

Yours in F. C. and L.,

S. J. SCRIBER, Box 147.

 Washington D.C. Sir

In answer to your inquiry of Aug. 4th concerning the History of Claimants Disability Claim No. 544,688, I will write a short History, which will explain the whole matter, plainly.

I was raised on a Farm, in Oswego Co. N.Y. and Educated at the Public School, Fallay Seminary, at Fulton, N.Y. and at the State Normal School, at Albany, N.Y. and was the first person to leave the last ~~known~~ School, for the Army in 1861. I enlisted as Private in Co. H. 24th N.Y. Infantry, in May 1861. and was mustered into the U. S. Service on the 17th of June, 1861. as 1st Sergt. Rec^d my first severe hurt, at Bull Run Va. on the 30th of Aug. 1862. Contusion of Left side supposed to have been caused by a piece of Shell which crushed my Canteen, & knocked me quite senseless. One of my comrades, (since killed at So. Mountain) assisted me off the field. I rec^d no Medical Treatment, other than some Liniment from the Hospital Steward, as Drs. were scarce and all very busy. My case seemed trifling when compared to many others, and so I did the best I could for myself. This hurt, however, has caused me much pain and trouble, and is growing worse, with age.

In the spring of 1863, we marched from Belle Plaine Va. on an Expedition, which has always been called "Burnside's Stick in the mud" where I had my first severe attack of Rheumatism. I contracted a very bad cold, which settled all over my body and especially in my head and lungs, having been exposed to a continuous rain storm, for three days and nights, with very little rest and no change of clothing. The 2nd severe attack of Rheumatism was caused by exposure to a storm while on the Picket line near Harrison's Landing Va. I was in Command of the Post, and was re-locating the line. This was about the 30th of Sept. 1864. On or about the 15th day of Jan. 1865, while discharging my duty as Field Officer of the day, I was exposed to a terrible Rain & Sleet Storm, which resulted in Congestion of the Lungs and a severe Cough, also a permanently seated case of Catarrh, from which I have never recovered. My Lungs have been much benefitted by my residence in the west, but my Catarrh has always caused me much trouble; though I am constantly using the best known remedies.

I was discharged at Syracuse N.Y. Aug. 12th 1865. I returned to Elmira N.Y. where I remained in business until 1867, when I removed to Cheyenne Wyo. hoping the change would benefit my Lungs.

In this I was not disappointed, as I am much better in a high Altitude & dry Climate; but my Catarrhal affection can only be kept bearable by constant watchfulness, and great care, and the constant use of the best known remedies.

I lived in Elmira N.Y. from 1865 until 1867, when I removed to Cheyenne Wyo. Ter. I was Principal of the Cheyenne Public School until I was obliged to resign on account of ill health. Dr. Russell was my Physician, (his whereabouts is at present, unknown to me.) In 1877 I removed to the Black Hills, where I have remained until the present time, except when on a visit to my old home in N.Y. State in 1880-1882

My occupation has been Teaching School or dealing in General Merchandise, since I left the Army, until I was, about a year ago elected to my present position

I was treated for Rheumatism, Lung Trouble and Catarrh by Dr. Stanchfield in Elmira, ^{N.Y.} and for the same troubles in Cheyenne by Dr. Russell

I have constantly made these diseases, a study, & have treated myself the greater part of the time Dr. T. G. Krime, gave me several prescriptions, while at Harrison's Landing Va.

I was never in Hospital, as a patient, one day, during my two terms of service, though I have been slightly wounded five times, and suffered a great deal from the three troubles named, as I always had a strong dislike to Hospitals, I had decided, long ago, not to apply for pension as long as I could do light work a part of the time, but of late I find it difficult to make my

TY-FOURTH REGIMENT.—We have received a letter from Hon. O. J. HARMON, giving us information of the condition of the wounded soldiers of the 24th. As it speaks of the same persons mentioned by Dr. CLARK in his letter to Mayor FORT, we do not print it. If any of the friends of the soldiers desire to see Mr. HARMON's letter, they can do so by calling at the Times office.

HEARD FROM.—(G. D. McLEAN, of the 24th regiment, whose name did not appear in the list of killed, wounded or missing, has been heard from. He is at the hospital at Newport, Rhode Island, slowly recovering from illness. As no intelligence had reached his friends for some time, considerable solicitude was felt for him, and it is a consolation to know that he is safe, with the exception of sickness.

RETURNED.—Dr. CLARK returned from Washington this forenoon. He brought with him a couple of letters which we shall try to print to-morrow. J. W. JUDSON, Jr., of Gen. HARMON's staff, has also reached the city. He was taken prisoner by the rebels and released on parole.

part of the foot. I have since heard that COZZENS has gone to Philadelphia.

Jas. S. Wilson, of Amboy; wound of foot, not severe.

Warren Robinson; flesh wound of leg, will recover.

John Lapping; gunshot wound of side, recovering.

Augustus R. Miller; very severe wound through lower part of the body, will probably recover.

Charles L. Clark; flesh wound of thigh, will recover.

S. W. Martin; shot through both legs below the knees, will probably recover.

arm, secondary hemorrhage; brachial artery (main artery of arm) tied, doing well but dangerous.

Gamaliel Halsey; shot through both arms, one flesh wound, one bone broken, doing well, will probably recover.

Charles Scriber; shot through both knees, very dangerous.

Jeremiah Dunn; shot through lower part of belly, doing well, will probably recover.

Benson Davis; shot through the throat, since dead.

When I look over the long list of wounded that we have not yet seen, it seems to me that we have accomplished but little, but I can assure you our labors have been most assiduous. We will make our journey as fruitful as possible. Some of the wounded have gone on to Philadelphia, and some further North. The lists in all the hospitals are imperfect, more or less. New hospitals are daily established, and some of them we shall not find.

The 24th regiment is now about twelve miles North of Washington.

Yours truly,

C. C. P. CLARK.

Sir

Your communication addressed to me at Deadwood Dak.
Aug. 30th has finally reached me here.
With regard to Sergt. John R. Young, Co. H.
24th Regt. N.Y. Vols, I will state my recollections, of his injuries.

He rec^d his 1st injury during the night of the 20th or 21st of July 1861 while we were marching from College
Hill to the Navy Yard to get our arms

It was rainy and slippery, & he hurt his foot & ankle in such a manner that he could not walk & we left him on the Long Bridge as we were crossing into Va., & he was taken to Ft. Albany. I think this hurt troubled him during the entire service as he complained many times of it.

With regard to the Gun shot wounds I think he was hit on the left side of the head & on the left arm, during the afternoon of the 29th of Aug. 1862. while we were charging the Enemy on the Letter from John R. Young's pension file written by Stephen Scriber (Sept. 27, 1883) describing they were together when John was wounded at Groveton, then again during the 2nd day at Manassas. He also mentions they both carried mortally wounded Charles on the morning of August 30th, before the fighting commenced again.⁷¹

Groveton Pike. Though he was quite badly hurt he assisted me to carry ^{who was mortally wounded} my Brother off the field the next A.M. and, thought he could stand it for the day with the Co. rather than go to the rear. In the Afternoon we were again called upon to charge the enemy, who were stationed behind the R.R. near Manassas Gap.

In this charge Sergt. Young was struck in the left Shoulder, & again in the left Arm, & also in the left leg - above the knee. This was on the 30th of Aug. 1862. He was taken from the field to the Stone Hospital near Bull Run & thence to Washington, & I believe, then to Philadelphia Pa. It was a long time before he returned to his Regt.

I was so fortunate as never to miss a march nor a fight, in which my Regt. was engaged - so that all these happenings came under my personal observation. I was orderly Sergt. of H. Co. & in Command of the same on the 30th as Lieut. Sandhord, the only Com. Officer with the Co. was shot through the head on the eve of the 29th.

Fraternally Yours,

Stephen Scriber

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS OF THE FIRE ON JAMES STREET.—The fire is supposed to have originated in the Carpenters' shops in the eastern portion of the building in which the Bakery of Messrs. Hall & Co. was located, and that it was the work of an incendiary.—Soon after the flames had reached the Gun shop of Mr. S. J. Scriber, who occupied the eastern part of the building several explosions of gunpowder, in small quantities, were heard, and of force sufficient to send the flames and cinders upward. We give the following account of losses, &c., gleaned by the Journal since yesterday morning;—

The building in which the fire was first discovered, stands partially in the rear of the American Hotel and adjoining the store of Messrs. Hall & Co., and was occupied on the eastern ground floor as a stable, while the western portion contained the boiler and engine rooms of Messrs. H. & Co. The major portion of the second story was occupied by Peter Brown, as a carpenter shop.

Another carpenter, named P. Z. Jackson, occupied the room directly above that of Mr. Brown, the two connected by a trap door.

Webster Smith also occupied a room in the third story, as a store room for machinery.

The balance of this building was occupied by Hall & Co.

Building No. 17 James street, was occupied entirely by Hall & Co., with the exception of portions of the second story, which were occupied by S. J. Scriber, gunsmith, and Messrs. Arnold, Carr & Vickery, tobacconists.

Building No. 15 James street, was occupied by Messrs. Nicholas Downes & Co., dealers in stoves and house furnishing articles.

Building No. 13 James street, was occupied by Messrs. Waggoner, Johnson & Co., and was nearly filled with groceries, a portion of which were saved.

The American Hotel building was occupied by Mr. J. C. Everts as a hotel. The building is the property of Mr. Paschal Thurber.

The buildings No. 15 and 18 James street, and the building in the rear, were the property of Mr. Francis Hall. Building No. 13 James street belonged to the estate of G. H. & P. Waggoner.

The following is a list of the losses as near as we have been able to ascertain:—

Mr. F. Hall on buildings and stock, fully $20,000; insured for $11,000.

Waggoner, Johnson & Co., and the estate of G. H. & P. Waggoner, on building and stock have an insurance sufficiently large to cover the loss. The value of the goods stored in this building was upwards of $10,000, a portion of which may yet be saved.

Nicholas Downes & Co., on stock, lose between $8,000 and $10,000, they having just received a large stock of goods; insured for about $5,000.

Mr. S. J. Scriber, gunsmith, loses about $6,000 on stock and tools, Mr. S. having made an application for an insurance, but the papers had not been drawn. The loss of Messrs. Arnold, & Nickery we have not yet ascertained, but learn they have no insurance.

The damage to the American Hotel and stables cannot fall short of $5,000, and we have not been able to learn whether Mr. Thurber is insured or not.

Mr. J. C. Everts loses about $3,000, and has no insurance; P. Z. Jackson loses about $250, no insurance; Mr. Brown about $200, no insurance; Mr. Smith about $200, no insurance.

Several of the occupants of the stores on Salina street, suffered slight losses from water, but they are fully insured.

Mr. Hall informs us that the revolving oven built at great expense, is uninjured, and that his engine and boiler are unhurt, and that he intends to continue the erection of another block as soon as possible, and expects to have it ready for occupancy by January next, meanwhile his office may be found in the store of Messrs. Pinkerton & Co., opposite of the fire.

person of lawful age, who, being duly sworn, declare in relation to the aforesaid case as follows:

I am well acquainted with the Claimant Stephen J. Scriber, and have been in business with him since his discharge. Have known him since 1861 I saw him when he came home from the Army, at Harrison's Landing, in February 1865, and know that he succeeded in getting an extension of his leave of absence on account of Lung troubles (A very serious Cough) Catarrh, &c Rheumatism. After he returned from the service 1865, we formed a partnership
- ship, with the firm name of Dewitt & Scriber which existed about one and one half years when he went into business for himself in Syracuse N.Y. and from there he removed to the West, and resided in Cheyenne until 1876 or 77- During this time I was very intimate with him, either in business or correspondence, and know that he suffered a great deal from Lung troubles Catarrh, &c Rheumatism. He has never been engaged in heavy manual labor but in Mercantile & other light avocations & teaching. His health has never been robust and good since his return from the Army but he has been well about

Next Laffin's is an eating house. Simpson & Co's. Restaurant corral is doing a good business. Smith Bros., builders, door and sash factory are prepared to fill all orders promptly. The Pioneer store and free corral, come next, adjoining which is a row of small buildings unoccupied. Thomas Carroll's eating house, meals served up at all hours. Smith & Ankeny, deputy U. S. mineral surveyors are workers, and have two quartz claims in Pennington which assay away for. In passing up to the head of Sherman street we came by the corral of the Boil Bros., from McGregor, Iowa. In the distance may be seen the jail, a commodious looking building, the inside of which we have no desire to investigate, in fact, we prefer to remain on the outside. Returning down the east side of the street, we dropped into the Exchange corral, kept by S. J. Scriber, he has a drove of eighty jacks for sale. The next building is the Maronic hall; on the first floor is the land office, which is being fitted up preparatory for business. Vaughn & Decker's grocery and provision house is having a snug trade. We come to the dental office of Dr. J. J. Clark, where the doctor may be found at all hours, and is highly recommended. Next door is the millinery bazar of Mrs. Clark. The business place of R. B. Horrie, dealer in Eastern made doors, sash and blinds; he is agent. J. C. Miller has built up a flourishing trade. McIntyre & Clapp, mining engineers and U. S. deputy mineral surveyors, are wide awake, energetic young men, who are doing a large share of the surveying in this country. Next comes the stone

Miss Edmonds, who is to teach one of the departments of our public school, passed the superintendent's examination a day or two since, and we are informed did remarkably well.

The arrivals by the Bismarck coach last evening were Wm. Williams, H. Wedge, Eric Barber, John Oleson, John Wedge, John Avery, F. P. Moulton, D. Galleneau and Miss Lizzie E. Witcher.

S. J. Scriber left this morning via Sidney for his old home, Elmira, New York. He goes in the interest of the Deadwood and Centennial valley toll road, and also on mining interests. He will be absent about four weeks.

J. I. Driskill, a large cattle dealer from Austin, Texas, is stopping at the Wentworth. He now has a herd of 5,000 cattle on his range at the head of the Belle Fourche. Mr. Driskill speaks highly of that section as a stock country.

Tom Mallary, an old timer, one of the pioneers who came to Custer City in 1875, and who was always at the front in any undertaking that was gotten up for the advancement of the Hills people, came in last night from Leadville and the Gunnison country. Tom has seen all he wants of that part of the vineyard.

PERSONAL MENTIONS.

Some days ago the TIMES made mention of a report that Mr. L. E. Gaffy had associated himself with J. F. Watson, at Pierre, for the purpose of carrying on a legal business. This was an error, as a letter to his wife reports him in law business at Blunt, twenty-five miles east from Pierre, on the line of the Northwestern railroad.

J. L. Scriber, of the former firm of Tallant & Scriber, who has been absent from the Hills for over three years, and returned about three months ago at Rochford, where he now resides, is in the city, and was a caller at the TIMES office yesterday.

Dr. Wedelstaedt was called to Crook City on Tuesday night to attend the daughter of J. L. Denman, who was suffering with diphtheria. The doctor returned last evening reporting his patient much better.

He sought the clerks office and secured a marriage license and at 3:30 the couple were married in the Keystone hotel parlor, by Rev. Oullie, the temporary pastor of the Baptist church. The happy couple left for their home on the evening train. The TIMES unites with their host of friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.
